MARINE CORPS EXECUTIVE FORUM OVERVIEW

The Marine Corps Executive Forum was created by the Commandant of the Marine Corps to strengthen the connection between America's Marines and civilian leaders of businesses, organizations, academia, and faith-based groups in communities large and small throughout the country. Since 2006, the program has exposed civilian leaders from across the United States to the Corps' operational capabilities, current programs, and future initiatives.

During the day-long program, participants are treated as Marines, learning the power of the individual Marine – an honorable and courageous professional warrior, committed to serving the Nation and its citizens. The program is limited to 25 participants or less to ensure a more personal experience with the Marines.

ELIGIBILITY

To be considered, an applicant must meet all eligibility requirements and submit an application comprising of all required materials.

Participants must:

» Be a citizen of the United States
» Business/civic leader or industry expert
» In good health and able to stand up for 30 minutes at a time over a 12-16 hour day
» Able to financially afford transportation and lodging costs associated with traveling to and from the program location
» Have the permission and support of his/her employer for participation
