APPENDIX B

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

Battle Color. See Battle Standard.

Battle Color of the Marine Corps. See Battle Standard of the Marine Corps.

Battle Standard. The term "Battle Standard" refers to the distinguishing organizational flag authorized for CMC Approved Command Slated Billets, bearing the title of a designated unit on the scroll.

Battle Standard of the Marine Corps. A Marine Corps color, known as "The Battle Standard of the Marine Corps" and bearing the battle streamers authorized for the Marine Corps as a whole, shall be kept at the Marine Barracks, Washington, D.C.

Color. The term "color" applies to a national flag or a unit or organization distinguishing flag carried by dismounted elements. It also applies to the distinguishing flag of comparable size, normally of rayon, authorized for certain high civilian and military officials; however, the term "color" will not be used in reference to personal distinguishing flags of Marine Corps officers.

Ensign. The term "ensign" refers to a flag displayed on board ships of the Navy and at Navy and Marine commands ashore.

Flag. The term "flag" is a general term and is applicable regardless of size, relative proportions, or manner of display. The fly of a flag is its length measured horizontally; the hoist of a flag is its width measured vertically.

Flag of the United States. The term "Flag of the United States" shall include any flag, standard, colors, ensign, or any picture or representation of either, of any part or parts of either, made of any substance or represented on any substance, of any size evidently purporting to be either of said flag, standard, colors, or ensign of the United States of America, or a picture or a representation of either, upon which shall be shown the colors, the stars and the stripes, in any number of either thereof, or of any part or parts of either, by which the average person seeing the same without deliberation may believe the same to represent the flag, standards, colors, or ensign of the United States of America.

Guidon. A guidon is a small rectangular flag carried by companies, batteries, and comparable units as a unit marker and for other purposes. Army and Navy guidons are swallow-tailed.

Marine Corps Color. The term "Marine Corps Color" in general application, refers to the type of distinguishing flag authorized for elements of the Marine Corps and, in specific application, to the distinguishing flag authorized for designated elements of the Marine Corps other than those defined simply as "ensign" or "guidon."

Mast. The term "mast" as used herein applies to a fixed shaft from which a flag is displayed.

National Ensign. The term "National Ensign" refers to the national flag displayed on board ships of the Navy and at Navy and Marine commands ashore.

National Flag. The term "National Flag" may be applied to the flag of the United States regardless of size or manner of display.

Organizational Standard. The term "Organizational Standard" ("Organizational Color") refers to the distinguishing flag authorized for Operating Forces or designated organization of the Supporting Establishment.

Pennant. A pennant is a small triangular flag, the fly end of which may be truncated or swallow tailed.

Silver Band. A silver band is a narrow band of silver metal, affixed to the staff of a standard, recording by appropriate inscription the battle participation, campaign, expedition, or award signified by a streamer.

Staff. The term "staff" as used herein applies to the shaft from which a flag carried by troops is displayed.

Standard. The term "standard" originally applied to a flag carried by mounted, mechanized, motorized, or aviation units of the Operating Forces. Modern usage refers to a flag of the type described in Chapter 3, carried by both Operating Forces and Supporting Establishment.

Streamer. A streamer is a long, narrow, swallow-tailed ribbon displayed attached to the staff of a battle color or standard, below the ornament, to signify a battle, campaign, or expedition in which a unit participated or an award to a unit for outstanding performance of duty.

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

(THE NATIONAL ANTHEM OF THE UNITED STATES BY ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1931)

Oh, say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming.
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

On the shore dimly seen, thro' the mists of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected, now shines on the stream;
'Tis the Star-Spangled Banner; oh, long may it wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Oh, thus be it ever when freemen shall stand,
Between their loved home and the war's desolation;
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n-rescued land
Praise the Power that has made and preserved us a nation.
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust,"
And the Star-Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Francis Scott Key

APPENDIX D

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(APPROVED BY ACT OF CONGRESS, DECEMBER 22, 1942 AND AMENDED ON JUNE 14, 1954)

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Frances Bellamy

APPENDIX E

THE MARINES' HYMN

From the Halls of Montezuma,
To the shores of Tripoli;
We fight our country's battles
In the air, on land, and sea;
First to fight for right and freedom
And to keep our honor clean;
We are proud to claim the title of
UNITED STATES MARINES.

Our flag's unfurled to every breeze
From dawn to setting sun;
We have fought in every clime and place
Where we could take a gun;
In the snow of far off northern lands
And in sunny tropic scenes;
You will find us always on the job
THE UNITED STATES MARINES.

Here's health to you and to our Corps
Which we are proud to serve;
In many a strife we've fought for life
And never lost our nerve;
If the Army and the Navy
Ever look on Heaven's scenes;
They will find the streets are guarded by
UNITED STATES MARINES.

APPENDIX F
MARINE CORPS WAR MEMORIAL

Iwo Jima put Marine courage and skill to the supreme test. In 26 days of relentless assault beginning 19 February 1945, the gallant 3d, 4th, and 5th Marine Divisions crushed fierce enemy resistance and captured this vital base along the last miles to Japan. The famous flag rising on Iwo Jima occurred on 23 February 1945.
