INTRODUCTION

This chronology was produced as a ready reference to Marine Corps activities during 1965-1969 when the United States was deeply involved in the war in Vietnam. Throughout this chronology, geographic locations are used to introduce each entry to enable the reader to locate the event with greater ease. The heading "USMC" is used when an event affected the Marine Corps in its entirety.
7 Jan
OKINAWA---The personnel of the 2d Battalion, 1st Marines sailed from San Diego, California as a transplacement battalion for the 3d Battalion, 3d Marines of the 3d Marine Division on Okinawa. (Scout, v. 23, no. 1, 8 Jan 1965, p. 2.)

9-12 Jan
VIETNAM---Marine helicopters carrying South Vietnamese forces to the northern coastal section were fired upon by insurgent small arms fire. Marine gunners in the helicopters returned the fire. There was no damage to the aircraft. (Globe, v. 21, no. 3, 21 Jan 1965, p. 1.)

19 Jan
CONUS---Battalion Landing Team (BLT) 3/8 departed Camp Lejeune, North Carolina for a three month deployment to the Caribbean area. The battalion replaced BLT 3/2 which had been deployed there since September 1964. (Globe, v. 21, no. 3, 21 Jan 1965, p. 1.)

25 Jan
USMC---The planned strength of the Marine Corps for 30 June 1966 was to be 193,000. The present strength was 188,495. (FOF, (1965), p. 29C.)

1 Feb
CONUS---Operation SNOWFEX-65 was held at Camp Drum, New York. This was the largest Marine Corps East Coast cold weather training exercise since the 1940s. Taking part in this month-long exercise were the 1st Battalion, 8th Marines, Marine Transport/Refueler Squadron (VMGR) 252, and Marine Medium Helicopter Squadron (HMM) 265. (Leatherneck, v. XLIX, no. 5, May 1965, p. 61.)

8 Feb
VIETNAM---Following several Viet Cong attacks on U. S. forces and installations, President Johnson ordered the deployment of the 1st Light Anti-Aircraft Missile (LAAM) Battalion to the Da Nang area. The battalion was equipped with Hawk surface-to-air missiles. (Early Bird, N.Y. Times, 9 Feb 1965, p. 1; Early Bird, N.Y. Journal American, 9 Feb 1965, p. 10.)

12 Feb
CONUS---The largest war game to be conducted since World War II, Operation SILVER LANCE, took place at Camp Pendleton, California. About 25,000 Marines from Hawaii and the West Coast and 20,000 sailors participated in the operation. The exercise included an amphibious landing by a force of 20,000 Marines. (Gazette, v. 49, no. 4, Apr 1965, p. 5.)

14 Feb
VIETNAM---A force of two battalions was stationed on board ships off the coast of South Vietnam ready to intervene if the Viet Cong began new attacks on American installations. (Early Bird, N.Y. Times, 15 Feb 1965, p. 3.)

15-16 Feb
VIETNAM---American involvement in Vietnam deepened as 88 Viet Cong guerrillas were killed in scattered incidents by Marine and Army helicopter gunners. The Viet Cong were killed in Binh Dinh, Vinh Binh, Quang Tin, and Quang Nam provinces. (Early Bird, Wash. News, 16 Feb 1965, p. 17.)

1 Mar
USMC---In another step toward all weather capability for Marine Corps (VMF(AW)) squadrons, Marine Fighter Squadron (VMF) 232 was redesignated Marine Fighter (All Weather) Squadron 232. The squadron just completed the transition from F8B to F8D Crusaders. (Gazette, v. 49, no. 4, Apr 1965, p. 4.)

6 Mar
VIETNAM---It was announced that two battalions of Marines, about 3,500 men, were to be deployed to the Republic of Vietnam at the request of the Saigon government. (Naval Review, 1968, p. 4.)

7 Mar
CONUS---Secretary of State Dean Rusk said that the American Marines that were deployed to Vietnam would shoot back if they were shot at, but their primary mission was the security of the Da Nang air base. (Naval Review, 1968, p. 4.)

8 Mar
VIETNAM---Units of the 9th Marine Expeditionary Brigade (9th MEB), under the command of Brigadier General Frederick L. Karch, arrived at Da Nang. The 3d Battalion, 9th Marines, 3d Marine Division became the first U. S. ground combat unit to land in Vietnam. (Gazette, v. 49, no. 4, Apr 1965, p. 1; Unit File - 3d Mar Div.)
1965

20 Mar CONUS--Battalion Landing Team 2/8 from Camp Lejeune, North Carolina to relieve BLT 1/2 as landing force for the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean area. (Gazette, v. 49, no. 3, Mar 1965, p. 3.)

22 Mar-10 Apr VIEQUES--Exercise QUICK KICK VII, a joint field amphibious and airborne exercise, was conducted with nearly 3,500 Marines from the 4th Marine Expeditionary Brigade from Camp Lejeune and Cherry Point, and Army paratroopers from Ft. Bragg, North Carolina. The purpose of the exercise was to test tactical concepts in joint operations by an actual amphibious landing and airborne assault. (Globe, v. 21, no. 10, 18 Mar 1965, p. 1.)

29 Mar VIETNAM--Marine Embassy guards did an excellent job in restoring order and maintaining security after a bomb exploded outside the U.S. Embassy in Saigon. The bombing caused heavy damage and many casualties. (Bkgd Info SE Asia and VN, p. 20.)

2 Apr USMC--Sergeant Major Herbert J. Sweet was named to succeed Sergeant Major Thomas J. McHugh as Sergeant Major of the Marine Corps. Sergeant Major Sweet was the fourth Marine to be named to this senior enlisted billet since its establishment in 1957. (Globe, v. 21, no. 14, 8 Apr 1965, p. 1.)

11 Apr VIETNAM--Battalion Landing Team 2/3 landed at Red Beach Two at Da Nang. The battalion had been participating in Exercise JUNGLE DRUM III, a combined counterinsurgency exercise in Thailand. (Naval Review, 1968, p. 10.)

12 Apr VIETNAM--A reinforced company from the 2d Battalion, 3d Marines arrived at Phu Bai where a communications facility and an airport were located. (Naval Review, 1968, p. 10.)

14 Apr VIETNAM--Another Marine battalion, 3/4 from Hawaii, landed at Hue/Phu Bai relieving a reinforced company of 2/3. This brought the number of Marines in Vietnam to more than 8,000. (Wash. Post, 22 Apr 1965, p. 1; Naval Review, 1968, p. 10.)

17 Apr VIETNAM--Marine Composite Reconnaissance Squadron (VMCR) 1 arrived at Da Nang. The squadron operated in support of the Seventh Fleet and the USAF 2d Air Division. (Gazette, v. 49, no. 8, Aug 1965, p. 1.)

22 Apr VIETNAM--Marines fought with Communist guerrillas twice during an eight hour patrol in a valley near Da Nang air base in their first extended clash with the enemy. This operation saw the first helicopter assault landing of Marines in the Republic of Vietnam. (Evening Star, 22 Apr 1965, p. 1.)

25 Apr DOM REP--Six United States ships were ordered to remain off the coast of the Dominican Republic in the event it became necessary to evacuate U.S. nationals following the resignation of President Cabral. Army rebels attempted an armed coup to reinstall ex-President Juan Bosch. Fierce fighting broke out between Air Force and Navy elements and pro-Bosch supporters. (Dom Diary, p. 10; USNIP, v. 91, no. 12, Dec 1965, p. 36.)

26 Apr DOM REP--Ships from the Caribbean Amphibious Ready Group led by the USS Boxer arrived off the coast of the Dominican Republic. These ships had 1,500 Marines on board comprising the 6th Marine Expeditionary Unit. (Dom Diary, p. 29.)

27 Apr DOM REP--Helicopters from HMM-264 evacuated 556 American citizens from Haina, a small Navy port seven miles west of Santo Domingo, to the ships Boxer and Raleigh. At the same time, 620 more evacuees boarded landing ships docked at the port. (Gazette, "Ubique" by MajGen R. McC. Tompkins, v. 49, no. 9, Sep 1965, p. 34.)

27 Apr DOM REP--Dominican Navy and Air Force Officers formed a military junta against the pro-Bosch rebels with the promise of free elections in the fall. (USNIP, v. 91, no. 12, Dec 1965, p. 40.)

28 Apr DOM REP--The situation in the Dominican Republic deteriorated to such an extent that the leader of the military junta requested the landing of U.S. Marines. United States Ambassador W. Tapley Bennett, Jr. then requested that Marines be landed to protect a large group of Americans in downtown Santo Domingo and to guard the embassy. (USNIP, v. 91, no. 12, Dec 1965, p. 42.)

28 Apr DOM REP--The 3d Battalion, 6th Marines from the Boxer, the first unit ashore, landed by helicopter in the polo field just west of the Hotel Embajador in Santo Domingo. The battalion was instructed to provide security around the U.S. Embassy and to protect American lives. (Leatherneck, v. XLIX, no. 8, Aug 1965, p. 18.)

29 Apr DOM REP--The Joint Chiefs of Staff authorized the landing of 500 additional troops in Santo Domingo. Shortly after this, the JCS directed the landing of the remaining elements of the 6th MEU including tanks and Ontos. This operation was named BARREL BOTTOM. (USNIP, v. 91, no. 12, Dec 1965, p. 44; Gazette, "Ubique" by MajGen R. McC. Tompkins, v. 49, no. 9, Sep 1965, p. 36.)
30 Apr DOM REP---Marines entered the center of Santo Domingo to seal off the U.S. Embassy. Leaving the staging area at the Hotel Embajador, seven miles away, the Marines set up roadblocks near the embassy where snipers had opened fire the previous night. (Herald Examiner, 30 Apr 1965, p. 1.)

30 Apr DOM REP---Two Marines were killed in a block by block advance through heavy opposition. The United States forces were attempting to set up an international safety zone in the city. (Wash. Post 1 May 1965, p. 1.)

30 Apr DOM REP---There were 1,700 American Marines and 2,500 soldiers in the Dominican Republic. (Herald Examiner, 30 Apr 1965, p. 1.)

1 May DOM REP---The 4th Marine Expeditionary Brigade was deployed by sea and air to the Dominican Republic. The MEB had a combat force of more than 5,500 Marines from Camp Lejeune and Cherry Point, North Carolina. (Geog File--Dominican Republic, 2d MarDiv News Release No. 61065.)

1 May DOM REP---Marines continued to move through the streets of Santo Domingo. One Marine was killed and three were wounded when rebels opened fire on Marines as they prepared to move out from Checkpoint Charlie at Avenida Presidente Rios and Calle San Juan Bosco. (Gazette, “Ubique” by MajGen R. McC. Tompkins; v. 49, no. 9, Sep 1965, p. 36.)

1 May VIETNAM---Major General William R. Collins, Commanding General, 3d Marine Division, arrived in Da Nang to assume command of Marine forces. Three days later, the 9th MEB was disestablished and the III Marine Expeditionary Force was established as senior Marine echelon. (Naval Review, 1968, p. 10.)

3 May DOM REP---The Marine Detachment of the USS Newport News landed to occupy the University of Santo Domingo and was attached to the 1st Battalion, 6th Marines. This was the first Marine ship's detachment deployed under arms since the summer of 1945. (USS Newport News Ship's Detachment Command Chronology, Special Report, dated 15 Jun 1965.)

6 May DOM REP---Four Marines were killed and one other was wounded by rebel machine gun fire in the ambush of a medical convoy in downtown Santo Domingo. Two other Marines were captured, but were later released by the rebels. (Wash. Post, 7 May 1965, p. 1.)

7 May VIETNAM---The III Marine Expeditionary Force was redesignated to III Marine Amphibious Force (III MAF) under the command of Major General William R. Collins. The 3d Marine Expeditionary Brigade, while approaching the coast of the Republic of Vietnam, was also redesignated to the 3d Marine Amphibious Brigade (3d MAB). (Naval Review, 1968, p. 10.)

7 May VIETNAM---Elements of the 3d MAB landed on the beach at Chu Lai. (Naval Review, 1968, p. 12.)

11 May VIETNAM---The Le My complex, eight miles northwest of Da Nang was searched and cleared by three companies of the 2d Battalion, 3d Marines. A pilot model civic action program was begun after the 400 civilians were liberated from Viet Cong control. (Naval Review, 1968, p. 13.)

12 May VIETNAM---Battalion Landing Team 3/3 came ashore at Chu Lai. This ended the amphibious operation and the 3d Marine Amphibious Brigade was dissolved and its units joined III MAF. (Naval Review, 1968, p. 12.)

17 May DOM REP---There were 15,000 Army personnel, 5,500 Marines, and 1,000 Air Force personnel in the Dominican Republic. Hundreds more were in reserve on ships offshore. (Sunday Star, 4 Jul 1965, p. 1.)

24 May CONUS---General Thomas Holcomb, the first Marine officer to attain three and four star ranks and the 17th Commandant of the Marine Corps, died at New Castle, Delaware. (Scout, v. 23, no. 21, 28 May 1965, p. 1.)

25 May DOM REP---After a meeting between rebel leaders and McGeorge Bundy, Presidential Assistant for National Security Affairs, the major phase of the Dominican crisis ended when a military truce was put into effect. (Dom Diary, p. 286.)

26 May DOM REP---After the arrival of 200 Brazilian soldiers, for the Inter-American Peace Force, Marines of BLT 3/6 began reloading on board the USS Boxer. (Dom Diary, p. 286.)

30 May VIETNAM---Major General Lewis W. Walt arrived at Da Nang to relieve Major General William R. Collins as Commanding General of III MAF and the 3d Marine Division. General Walt had been the director of the Landing Force Development Center, Quantico, Virginia. (Naval Review, 1968, p. 13.)

31 May CONUS---President Johnson announced that although the situation in the Dominican Republic continued to be serious, conditions had improved to the extent that an additional 2,000 Marines could be withdrawn. (Wash. Post, 2 Jun 1965, p. 1.)
1 Jun 1965

VIETNAM---For the first time a Short Airfield for Tactical Support (SATS) was used in a war zone after Marines laid down a new air strip at Chu Lai. (Gazette, v. 49, no. 6, Jun 1965, p. 1.)

1 Jun 1965

VIETNAM---The Chu Lai airfield was officially opened with the arrival of eight A-4 "Skyhawks" from Cubi Point, Philippine Islands. The skyhawks were from Marine Attack Squadron (VMA) 223 and VMA-311. (Naval Review, 1968, p. 13.)

2 Jun 1965

USMC---Seventy graduates of a class of 806 at the U.S. Naval Academy accepted commissions in the Marine Corps. Six graduates of the U.S. Military Academy and two from the U.S. Air Force Academy also accepted commissions in the Marine Corps. (MS--Acad Grads in USMC.)

3 Jun 1965

CONUS---President Johnson ordered the withdrawal of all remaining Marines in the Dominican Republic, numbering approximately 2,100. (Wash. Post, 4 Jun 1965, p. 1.)

4 Jun 1965

VIETNAM---In the Da Nang and Phu Bai areas, five companies of Marines killed 79 Viet Cong in the heaviest action for the Marines since they landed in Vietnam in March. During the series of fire fights, Marines battered the enemy on the ground and from the air. Two Marines were killed and 19 wounded. (Wash. Daily News, 6 Jun 1965, p. 3.)

5 Jun 1965

USMC---Marine Corps casualties resulting from actions by hostile forces from 1 January 1961 through 5 June 1965 were 29 killed, 156 wounded, and 3 missing in action. There were 20 dead from causes other than hostile fire. (Bkgd Info SE Asia and VN, p. 232.)

6 Jun 1965

CONUS---Marines began returning to Camp Lejeune, North Carolina from the Dominican Republic. Nine Marines died and 30 were wounded in the fighting there. (Gazette, v. 49, no. 7, Jul 1965, p. 1.)

7 Jun 1965

VIETNAM---There were more than 16,500 Marines in Vietnam with the total number of American military personnel over the 50,000 mark. (US Into VN, p. 42.)

8 Jun 1965

VIETNAM---The U.S. military command in South Vietnam was authorized to send American troops into combat alongside Vietnamese forces upon the request of the South Vietnamese government. (US Into VN, p. 43.)

9 Jun 1965

CONUS---Battalion Landing Team 1/6 arrived at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina from the Dominican Republic. This completed the return of the major units deployed from the 2d Marine Division. (Geog File--Dominican Republic, 2d MarDiv News Release No. 61065, p. 4.)

17 Jun 1965

VIETNAM---The 1st Battalion, 9th Marines landed at Da Nang to relieve the 3d Battalion, 9th Marines which sailed for Okinawa. The 1st Battalion assumed the responsibility for the close-in security of Da Nang air base. (Naval Review, 1968, p. 15.)

25 Jun 1965

CONUS---A Vietnam-bound military transport crashed in the Santa Ana Mountains after taking off from MCAS, El Toro, California. Seventy-two Marines were killed in the crash. (FOF, (1965), p. 508C.)

Jul 1965

USMC---General Wallace M. Greene, Jr., Commandant of the Marine Corps, announced the combining of the Corps' two major Pacific Commands, Fleet Marine Force, Pacific (FMFPac) and Aircraft, Fleet Marine Force, Pacific (AirFMFPac). This consolidation would integrate more closely Marine ground and aviation components and simplify command structure and relations. Lieutenant General Victor H. Krulak assumed overall command as Commanding General, FMFPac. (Gazette, v. 49, no. 8, Aug 1965, p. 2.)

1 Jul 1965

1 Jul 1965

VIETNAM---Battalion Landing Team 3/7, the Seventh Fleet's Special Landing Force, went ashore at Qui Nhon. The battalion was supported by HMM-163. (Naval Review, 1968, p. 16.)

1 Jul 1965

VIETNAM---Three aircraft were destroyed and three damaged when a Viet Cong demolitions squad got onto the flight line on the east side of the runway at Da Nang and opened fire on the south end of the field with mortar fire. During the attack on the field one airman was killed and three Marines were wounded. (Naval Review, 1968, p. 15.)

4 Jul 1965

VIETNAM---The 9th Marines regimental headquarters and the 2d Battalion, 9th Marines, arrived in Da Nang from Okinawa. (Sea Tiger, v. V, no. 27, 4 Jul 1969, p. 11.)

7 Jul 1965

VIETNAM---The 2d Battalion, 7th Marines arrived in Vietnam to provide security and defend the Army's logistical build-up at Qui Nhon. It relieved BLT 3/7 which returned to the Seventh Fleet ships as the SLF. (Scout, v. 24, no. 23, 24 Jun 1966, p. 4; Naval Review, 1968, p. 16.)
1965

8 Jul
VIETNAM—More Marines were landed from Navy ships at Da Nang and Qui Nhon. Within the following week, 4,600 Marines were landed. Marine landings involved an 8,000-man build-up which brought American military strength in Vietnam to almost 60,000 troops. (Early Bird, Balt. Sun, 8 Jul 1965, p. 1.)

11 Jul
VIETNAM—A Marine patrol 10 miles southwest of the Da Nang air base came under Viet Cong sniper fire. Two Marines were killed and four were wounded. (Balt. Sun, 12 Jul 1965, p. 3.)

13 Jul
VIETNAM—Marines, on a sweep operation three miles southwest of Da Nang, battled with 200 Viet Cong, killing 48. Five Marines were killed and 17 wounded. (Gazette, v. 49, no. 8, Aug 1965, p. 1.)

18 Jul
VIETNAM—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, on his sixth fact-finding trip to Vietnam, visited the Vietnamese I Corps and III MAF. (Naval Review, 1968, p. 16.)

28 Jul
CONUS—President Johnson announced 50,000 more American troops would be sent to Vietnam almost immediately. This would bring U.S. military strength in Vietnam to 125,000 and additional troops would be sent as they were needed. (Naval Review, 1968, p. 16.)

10 Aug
USMC—the Marine Corps was authorized 30,000 more men to bring its total strength to 223,100. This increase provided three new battalions and two helicopter training squadrons. These troops were needed to meet the growing commitments in the Vietnamese conflict. (Naval Review, 1968, p. 17.)

14 Aug
USMC—Brief compulsory extensions of service for regular Marine Corps personnel were put into effect by the Navy Department to meet the growing demands of the war in Vietnam. This order affected 12,000 Marines whose tours of duty expired within the next four months. (Early Bird, N.Y. Times, 15 Aug 1965, p. 1.)

14 Aug
VIETNAM—Regimental Landing Team 7, 1st Marine Division landed in Vietnam. (US Into VN, p. 46.)

15 Aug
CONUS—About 15,000 men, forming the main body of the 1st Marine Division, left Camp Pendleton for the Far East. (San Diego Union, 3 Sep 1965, p. 19.)

18 Aug
VIETNAM—After learning that the 1st Viet Cong Regiment of some 2,000 men had moved into prepared positions on the Van Tuong Peninsula, III MAF launched Operation STARLITE, the first regimental-sized U.S. battle since the Korean War. Thousands of Marines made airborne and amphibious landings in an effort to trap the Viet Cong. At the end of the four-day operation, over 700 of the enemy had been killed after Marines had closed off all possible escape routes inland from the peninsula. (Naval Review, 1968, p. 18-19; Leatherneck, v. XLIX, no. 11, Nov 1965, p. 38.)

1 Sep
USMC—in an effort to process the 30,000 additional men authorized for the Marine Corps without an increase in instructors and existing facilities, the recruit training time was reduced from 12 to 8 weeks. It was felt that the shorter training period would not diminish the combat effectiveness of recruits. (N.Y. Times, 3 Sep 1965, p. 10.)

1 Sep
VIETNAM—the 9th Marines began Operation GOLDEN FLEECE, which was designed to prevent the rice harvest from falling into Viet Cong hands. To this end, the Marines set up cordons and used small-unit patrols and night ambushes. All subsequent operations by III MAF to protect the rice harvest were named GOLDEN FLEECE. (Naval Review, 1968, p. 24.)

2 Sep
VIETNAM—About 1,400 Marines from Marine Aircraft Group 36 began landing at Chu Lai. This reinforcement included a heavy helicopter unit, three medium helicopter units, and observation aircraft. (Evening Star, 3 Sep 1965, p. 7.)

2 Sep
CONUS—Another 1,100 men from the 1st Marine Division left Camp Pendleton to join the main part of the division in the Far East. The number of 1st Marine Division Marines at Camp Pendleton was now reduced to 4,000 men. (San Diego Union, 3 Sep 1965, p. 19.)

2 Sep
USMC—Major General Francis M. McAlister, USMC (Retired), who was commanding officer of the Marine Barracks at Oahu, Hawaii during the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, died. General McAlister took part in seven campaigns in World War II and was wounded in action in Korea. (Wash. Post, 5 Sep 1965, p. 24.)

4 Sep
CONUS—The Marine Corps Drum and Bugle Corps and Drill Team entertained Labor Day crowds at the New York World's Fair. World's Fair officials designated the day as Salute to Marines Day. (N.Y. Daily News, 5 Sep 1965, p. 54.)

7 Sep
USMC—the Marine Corps announced that it would probably have to start drafting men in January. Although Marine recruiting had been encouraging, more men would be needed for growing commitments in Vietnam. Volunteers increased 20 percent in August over July. (N.Y. World Telegram, 8 Sep 1965, p. 12.)
7 Sep 1965: Marines used tear gas near Qui Nhon to remove South Vietnamese women and children from caves where Viet Cong suspects were believed to be hiding. Lieutenant Colonel Leon Utter, the commanding officer of the battalion, felt that this was the best method of getting them out without injury. They were hiding there because the Viet Cong told them that the Marines would commit atrocities. (Early Bird, N.Y. Times, 8 Sep 1965, p. 1.)

7 Sep 1965: Operation PIRANHA began on the Batangan Peninsula where a build-up of Viet Cong was supposed to be taking place. The Marines defeated a large Viet Cong band in a joint amphibious operation with South Vietnamese Marines who were hell-lifted into the area. At the end of the three day operation, 183 Viet Cong were killed by U.S. Marines and another 66 Viet Cong were killed by South Vietnamese Marines. (Naval Review, 1968, p. 19; Gazette, v. 49, no. 10, Oct 1965, p. 1.)

13 Sep 1965: Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge visited the village of Le My. The 2d Battalion, 3d Marines played a vital role in winning this village back for the South Vietnamese government through its civic action program. (L.A. Times, 14 Sep 1965, p. 2.)

15 Sep 1965: Battle rate for Marines in South Vietnam was much lower than in other wars according to Navy medical officers. The battle casualty rate was well below expectations and there was much less disease. (Early Bird, Wash. Post, 23 Sep 1965, p. 3.)

22 Sep 1965: Lieutenant General Victor B. Krulak, Commanding General, Fleet Marine Force, Pacific, said that Marines were receiving intensive training in civic action for Vietnam. Marines learned about counterinsurgency situations during the banana wars of the 1920s in Latin America and were putting these lessons to good use in Vietnam. (Early Bird, San Diego Union, 24 Sep 1965, p. 1.)

23 Sep 1965: Operation DAGGER THRUST I began on a peninsula south of Qui Nhon. Marines were carried from Seventh Fleet shipping to the shore by helicopters and amphibious vehicles. The Marines destroyed Communist bunkers and tunnels and then returned to their ships. This was the first of a series of amphibious raids along the coast of II CTZ conducted by Seventh Fleet Marines. (Early Bird, Balt. Sun, 28 Sep 1965, p. 2.)

30 Sep 1965: The 1st Battalion, 1st Marines began using portable generators to smoke the Viet Cong out of their underground hiding places. These generators force nontoxic smoke into tunnels and caves, forcing out the Viet Cong and pinpointing possible escape routes. (Early Bird, Chicago Tribune, 3 Oct 1965, p. 3.)

4 Oct 1965: Due to heavy commitments in Vietnam, the Marine Corps decided to drop its rotation system of infantry battalions to the Far East. These battalions were rotating on a 30-month basis—15 months stateside duty, 13 months overseas, one month in transit, and one month on leave. Under the new system, Marines would be assigned on an individual basis to Western Pacific duty for 13 months to 2 years. (Gazette, v. 49, no. 11, Nov 1965, p. 2.)

6 Oct 1965: Marines from the Seventh Fleet suffered no casualties in heavy fighting with Communist guerrillas. Landing three days before, during DAGGER THRUST III, Marines swept the Viet Cong from a peninsula 60 miles northwest of Qui Nhon. About 28 Viet Cong were killed and 28 captured during the amphibious offensive. (Early Bird, Balt. Sun, 4 Oct 1965, p. 1.)

6 Oct 1965: Marine patrol was ambushed near Da Nang by an estimated 150 to 200 Viet Cong. Ten of the 13 members of the patrol were killed or wounded. One survivor reported that the guerrillas placed live ducks over their heads for camouflage. (Early Bird, Balt. Sun, 5 Oct 1965, p. 1.)

5 Oct 1965: Battalion Landing Team 3/2 from Camp Lejeune, North Carolina boarded ships at Morehead City for a five month deployment in the Mediterranean area. (Globe, v. 21, no. 40, 7 Oct 1965, p. 1.)

14 Oct 1965: The draft call for December was put at 45,224 men by the Department of Defense. The Marine Corps was to receive 5,024 men. (FOE, 1965), p. 375G.)

26 Oct 1965: General Wallace M. Greene, Jr., Commandant of the Marine Corps, said that due to an increase in enlistments the Corps may be able to eliminate part of its draft call. General Greene said he hoped to have all of the 30,000 additional men authorized for the Corps by March 1966. (Early Bird, Balt. Sun, 27 Oct 1965, p. 2.)
4 Nov VIETNAM---Dickey Chapelle, famed war correspondent and photographer, was killed near Chu Lai while covering the Marines during Operation BLACK FERRET. (Sea Tiger, v. V, no. 1, 3 Jan 1969, p. 11.)

5 Nov MEDITERRANEAN---Marines from Battalion Landing Team 3/2 began five days of counter-guerrilla training exercises when they landed at Aranci Bay on the northern end of Sardinia. (Globe, v. 22, no. 3, 20 Jan 1966, p. 16.)

7 Nov VIETNAM---Battalion Landing Team 2/7 boarded ships of Task Group 76.3 at Qui Nhon in preparation for Operation BLUE MARLIN. This unit, which had been operating under control of the Army in II CTZ, returned to its parent organization, the 7th Marines. (Naval Review, 1968, p. 20.)

9 Nov USMC---At the request of the Marine Corps, Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara barred youths of 17 from duty in South Vietnam. During the Korean War, the Marine Corps restricted overseas duty to those 18 or over. (Early Bird, Balt. Sun, 10 Nov 1965, p. 1.)

10 Nov USMC---Because of an increase in enlistments the Marine Corps cancelled its December draft call for 5,024 men. (FOF, 1965, p. 415E.)

10 Nov VIETNAM---Operation BLUE MARLIN, the first combined American and Vietnamese Marine amphibious landing against Communist forces, began north of Chu Lai. (Da Nang Press Trends, 10 Nov 1965, p. 1.)

28 Nov VIETNAM---Secretary of Defense McNamara met with Major General Lewis W. Walt and was advised by General Walt that the number of Marine infantry battalions should be increased from 12 to 18 and the fighter/attack squadrons increased to eight. (Naval Review, 1968, p. 23.)

3 Dec USMC---The January draft call was placed at 38,280 men of which 8,980 would go to the Marine Corps. (FOF, 1965, p. 449C.)

5 Dec VIETNAM---Marines landing from the Seventh Fleet attacked a Viet Cong coastal stronghold 30 miles north of Qui Nhon during DAGGER THRUST V. This was an attempt to destroy the source of major Communist attacks in the past months. During the landing, 14 enemy troops were killed and enemy installations were destroyed. (Early Bird, Phil. Inquirer, 6 Dec 1965, p. 1.)

8 Dec VIETNAM---Thousands of Marines took part in Operation HARVEST MOON, which began in the area between Da Nang and Chu Lai. During the week-long operation, Marines accounted for over 300 Viet Cong dead and captured 50 tons of rice. (Leatherneck, v. 1, no. 4, Apr 1966, p. 38.)

27 Dec VIETNAM---Marines killed 63 Viet Cong in skirmishes around the Da Nang air base after a short-lived Christmas truce. The Marines took only light casualties. (Early Bird, Balt. Sun, 28 Dec 1965, p. 1.)

30 Dec VIETNAM---The bodies of three Marines and eight Vietnamese troops were found in shallow graves after they had been executed in cold blood by North Vietnamese troops. They had been captured after their position had been overrun on the evening of 16 December. (Early Bird, Balt. Sun, 31 Dec 1965, p. 2.)
1966

Jan

CONUS---The deployment of the 1st Marine Division to Vietnam was approved following Secretary of Defense McNamara’s visit to CinCPac in November. (Naval Review, 1968, p. 27.)

1 Jan

USMC---Marines numbered approximately 38,500 of the 181,000 U. S. Armed Forces in Vietnam. Total Marine Corps strength was approximately 214,500. (Sea Tiger, v. 3, no. 1, 4 Jan 1967, p. 1.)

3 Jan

6 Jan

USMC---General Wallace M. Greene, Jr. and Lieutenant General Victor H. Krulak, Commanding General Fleet Marine Force, Pacific, stated that more Marines would be sent to Vietnam. General Krulak said Marines in Vietnam had been conducting more than 3,000 operations a month from squad size on up. (Early Bird, San Diego Union, 8 Jan 1966, p. 14.)

7 Jan

CONUS---Under Secretary of Defense McNamara’s plan to replace 75,000 servicemen with 60,500 civilians in jobs previously filled by military personnel, the Marine Corps hired 117 civilians at Camp Pendleton, California. The Marine Corps replaced 2,800 military with 2,500 civilians. (Early Bird, San Diego Union, p. 13.)

9 Jan

CONUS---General Wallace M. Greene, Jr. announced that the Marine Corps had no plans for calling up the reserves at the present time, but that the Marines were taking every possible step to bring the reserves to the highest state of readiness. (Early Bird, N.Y. Times, 10 Jan 1966, p. 5.)

14 Jan

USMC---About two-thirds of the Marine Corps' combat forces were deployed in the Far East, Mediterranean, and Caribbean. Well over a division was in Vietnam and battalions were rotated between Vietnam and Okinawa. Further battalions were needed to maintain this rotation and provide a reserve in the United States. (Early Bird, Wash. Post, 14 Jan 1966, p. 12.)

15 Jan

CUBA---The 2d Battalion, 8th Marines was reduced in strength and deployed to the Naval Base at Guantanamo Bay to become the nucleus of the ground defense force there. (Globe, v. 22, no. 3, 20 Jan 1966, p. 16.)

17 Jan

CONUS---Upon his return from an inspection of the forces in Vietnam, General Wallace M. Greene, Jr. said that a massive, all-out effort may be necessary to end the war. General Greene added that this would presuppose a united front at home and awareness of America's own security requirements in Southeast Asia. (Early Bird, Balt. Sun, 18 Jan 1966, p. 1.)

20 Jan

CONUS---President Johnson requested additional funds to activate another 18,000-man Marine Corps division to add to the three divisions currently in the Corps. (Early Bird, Wall Street Journal, 21 Jan 1966, p. 3.)

27 Jan

CONUS---The Defense Department sent out a draft call for 22,900 men in March. The Marine Corps was to receive 5,000 men. (Early Bird, Balt. Sun, 28 Jan 1966, p. 4.)

CONUS---Twenty Marines, training for duty in Vietnam, were killed when a HU-1B helicopter crashed into a Sea Stallion (CH-53A) helicopter over Camp Lejeune, North Carolina. (FOF, 1967, p. 336C.)

1 Jul
USMC---Lieutenant General Leonard F. Chapman, Jr. became Assistant Commandant of the Marine Corps. ("Chapman")

2 Jul
VIETNAM---Operation BUFFALO began when an enemy force estimated at 5 battalions attacked the 1st Battalion, 9th Marines a few miles northeast of Con Thien. Intense fighting broke out during the first few days of the operation in which 84 Marines were killed. When the operation ended on 14 July, the enemy had lost 1,301 dead while Marine losses were placed at 113 killed and 290 wounded. (Naval Review, 1969, p. 130.)

7 Jul
CONUS---President Johnson signed an executive order authorizing the promotion of qualified Marine first lieutenants to captain after completing only one year in grade instead of two. It was hoped that this would increase the number of captains needed for commands in Vietnam and other duty stations. (1967 Chronology, p. 6.)

9 Jul
VIETNAM---Operation CHOCTAW ended north of Phu Bai with 160 enemy soldiers killed. The operation was conducted by the 4th Marines. (Sea Tiger, v. III, no. 31, 4 Aug 1967, p. 1.)

14 Jul-16 Jul
VIETNAM---One Marine was killed and 30 were wounded when they were attacked by enemy troops on the second day of Operation HICKORY II. The Marines, on a sweep south of the DMZ when the attack came, killed 25 enemy troops during the all-day battle. (Early Bird, N.Y. Times, 17 Jul 1967, p. 1.)

31 Jul CONUS---The largest amphibious assault exercise ever held at Camp Pendleton began with air and ground and regular and reserve Marines. The exercise, called GOLDEN SLIPPER, was designed to test the ability of reservists to join quickly with regular forces in amphibious operations. (Early Bird, Chicago Tribune, 1 Aug 1967, p. 4.)

1 Aug VIETNAM---American troop strength in the Republic of Vietnam included 78,000 Marines. (67 Comm Chron, p. 17.)

11 Aug USMC---General Wallace M. Greene, Jr., Commandant of the Marine Corps, stated that although the Marines were making considerable progress in Vietnam, the civic action program had slowed down due to increased fighting along the DMZ. (Windward Marine, v. 16, no. 32, 18 Aug 1967, p. 1.)

13 Aug VIETNAM---Two companies from the 3d Battalion, 26th Marines were attached to the 9th Marines for Operation KINGFISHER which began 16 July. They were transferred because of a decrease of enemy action around Khe Sanh. The operation terminated 31 October 1967 in the DMZ area with over 1,100 NVA and VC killed. (Da Nang Press Trends, 1 Nov 1967, p. 3; Khe Sanh, p. 181.)

16 Aug USMC---General Wallace M. Greene, Jr. said that the 4th Marine Division and Aircraft Wing would not be mobilized in spite of the fact that the Marines needed more combat troops in Vietnam. (Early Bird, N.Y. Times, 16 Aug 1967, p. 18.)

17 Aug USMC---Lieutenant General Leonard F. Chapman, Jr. received the Armed Forces Management Association 1967 Merit Award for promoting improved management techniques within the Marine Corps. (1967 Chronology, p. 7.)
